

Richard Dorr Cramer

December 30, 1930 - November 22, 2023

Dick, age 92 of Bloomington, passed away peacefully November 22nd surrounded by close family.

Dick was born in Syracuse, New York December 30, 1930 to Ken and Alice Cramer. After enlisting in the Navy during the Korean conflict, he graduated from Kansas University as a Mechanical Engineer, and worked in the HVAC industry his entire career. He began Cramer Building Services as president representing the Minnesota franchise of The Trane Company, growing it to dozens of employees at its peak.

He recently celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary with his dear wife Diane. They did everything together, and she thought he was the most beautiful and loving man that she could ever have dreamed to be with.

He loved sailing, fishing, tennis, golf, doing jigsaw puzzles at the lake with his family, and traveled extensively with Diane. He loved working with tools at the workbench in the garage and was skillful at everything he did. He was kind, generous, humble, savvy, honest, and selfless. He was always gracious in every aspect of life and will be deeply missed.

Preceded in death by his parents, sister Gloria, and nephew Scott Brent. Survived by loving wife Diane, son Rick (Karen) Cramer, daughters Karen

Peterson, Susanne (Gary) Diamond, granddaughters Lauren (Nick) Waggoner and Rachel (Caleb) Hansen, grandson John (Katy) Cramer, great-grandsons Spencer, William and Jackson, niece Sherry Dunne, stepchildren Steve Schultz, Scott Schultz, and Julie Minch, and step-grandchildren Hannah, Katie, and Jack Minch.

Memorial service Sunday December 3rd at 2 PM at Washburn-McReavy Chapel, 5000 West 50th & Highway 100. Visitation one hour prior to service. Memorials preferred to Wounded Warriors or the charity of your choice.
