“ I haven't seen the Crosby's since their wedding, shortly after they moved from Wisconsin many years ago. Thankfully we've kept up to date with each other's lives via our annual Christmas cards. Every year, more than any other, I looked forward to the Crosby Christmas letter knowing it would be steeped with Richard's wonderful sense of humor. His children were a constant source of material and his fatherly pride just jumped off the paper. It was via this year's letter that I learned of Richard's passing and am deeply saddened and shocked.

Lou - You and the kids are in my thoughts and (most importantly) in my prayers. I am so happy for the great life you and "Bing" were able to share and the beautiful children that will be your and "Bing's" legacy. May the best moments you've shared bring a smile to your face everyday.

“ When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had these years. I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on, so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near- and if you listen with your heart you'll hear, all of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home".
