“ Dear Pat and Family - I very much enjoyed getting to know Dick on a weekend Angie and I went to your cabin before her and Jimmy were married. It was a fun weekend of working outside in the great weather, side by side with him and Angie, going to Saturday evening mass and enjoying a few meals together. I brought homemade peanut butter cookies that he commented "These are pretty good" and when ever I have made them to this day I think of that weekend every time! I talked a lot and he kept laughing so I thought he maybe thought I was funny but now looking back he probably kept laughing because he was thinking to himself "How long can this girl go with out talking" and then I would talk again! He didn't remember my name that weekend but overheard him say to Ang, "That girl is nice", I new, I was sitting pretty good with him! I only saw him at family gatherings and will forever remember his smile, such a proud smile for the family that was able to make the gathering! These memories are a gift from him I'll cherish always in the hearts of Angie, Jimmy, Quinn, Griffin, Delaney and Cecilia! Please accept my most heart felt sympathy's for Dick and know I understand the heart shattering feeling's you have and pray you have more good day's then sad day's ahead! Huge Hugs to You All!!

“ Dick will be sorely missed by those that knew him. Fiercely loyal to his family, church, and business, he was never prideful. Although if you visited him at his home you knew the first place he'd take someone is the front room to see all the pictures of his many grandchildren. A tireless worker, Dick was always on the move. I imagine when he got to heaven he asked how he could be useful, and went right to work. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Schreier family at this time. Margaret and Michael Ahles
