“ Peter, I am very sorry for the loss of your father. From reading the shared memories, I know why I always thought you always were a nice person, because it sounds like your parents were quite special. My father died in 1991 and my mother just died in 2012, so I know what it is like to not have your parents anymore. May his memories comfort you and you will be in my thoughts and prayers,
Take good care of yourself, Monica (Salonek) Ruzicka

“ Richard I'm sure will be missed by all, he was like a second father growing up with his quiet demeanor and patience of a saint. The last time I saw him was in Buffalo, sadly about 12 years ago, where he proceeded to tell me a joke about aging friends. I hold fond memories of sitting around the table in the kitchen, not walking on the carpet in the TV room with our shoes on, pontoon rides on Buffalo lake, and a few occassional rides in the airplane. Dean/Dave/Jon/Pete, you have big shoes to fill now that Richard has joined Jeanne, I can see them laughing together!

“ Please know that Dr. Evan's and your Mom were a part of my life beginning in March of 1986. He became my landlord when I purchased Foxe Fyre Gallery from Paulette Johnson. They were two of the kindest people on God's earth and always greeted me with a smile. I know how happy he will be to be reunited with Jean. And I also know that he will be greatly missed by all of you. Please accept my sympathies. I will watch for or ask friends in Buffalo to let me know when the memorial service is being held. Find comfort in each other during this time of loss. Sincerely, Jayne Weiche

“ To the family in their time of sorrow, the upright and blameless man Job expressed faith in the resurrection saying, in his intense suffering: “O that in Sheol (Hebrew, the grave) you would conceal me, . . . that you would set a time limit for me and remember me! If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”—Job 14:13-15. Yes, please take comfort that our Creator longs to bring those in his memory back from the grave.
