“ Rick was a fiercely passionate person with a constantly curious mind. He and Linda took care of generations of young musicians and have contributed to growing the choral art form in an incredible way. I know I speak for many leagues of Cantus members past and present who are so grateful to have known Rick. We send all of his friends and family, and especially dear Linda, our deepest condolences.

“ Although I did not know Rick well, I was lucky enough to spend a bit of time with him through extended family. His energy was infectious and his commitment to family unwavering. To Linda and family, may your memories of him give you comfort.

“ Although he and Linda never had biological kids, they sure had many they took care of! I was one of the lucky ones, introduced through my work at ComMUSICation. Rick was such a genuinely kind, selfless guy who introduced me to Hamilton. I was lucky enough to stay w them at Vail and when I lost my phone on the slopes he took me to Costco to buy a replacement and acted as my wallet until I was able to get cash. He and Linda funded our office furniture and never wavered in their support-our greatest cheerleaders showing up to every event, no matter how small. I will always be grateful to Rick and will miss you! Much love to Linda and the family.
