“ Rick has been a tremendous neighbor and friend for the extended Kiecker family for decades. Through all four seasons, we would see each other mowing, raking, gardening, repairing things, managing the snow, and then taking a break to share stories about our families, the never-ending leaves, or life. We were so saddened to learn of Rick’s passing. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Kathy, his terrific wife, and the entire Johnson family. May Rick’s memory be a blessing to all. “ When Rick and Kathy had dinner with Barbara Jean and me in Myrtle Beach, we had so much fun, we had some great laughs. Eating, drinking, telling stories, what a great time we had. I always felt close to Rick even though we lived so far apart. I feel so sad for Brandon and Kathy, their loss is immeasurable. When someone you love dies your love for them lives on. Our love for Rick is forever.
