“ Always a bold forward-thinker, Dick advocated for emerging technologies, always encouraging and supporting young entrepreneurs. I was a lucky recipient of his insights and advice. He is fondly remembered.

“ Thinking of you brings back lots of great memories! You and Mary gave me my first very own beloved puppy! You and David were also the first and only ones to take me skiing. The best Thanksgivings by far were the ones with the Muellers! My parents loved you too. Say hello to my dad! Thank you for being part of my life..

To Dick Mueller's family.

Sorry to hear of Dick's passing, he was a great guy and will be missed.

I met Dick in March of 1952 when we were both assigned to the Navy's newly commissioned weather patrol squadron, VJ-1 at Sandpoint Naval Air Station, Seattle, WA. After a few months of training we were sent to Guam in time for the "typhoon season". Dick was a valued member of flight crews on various low level flight penetrations of typhoons for the next 1 1/2 years. We became good friends and spent time together from Seattle to Japan, Hong Kong, Saigon, Phillipines and various other places in that part of the world.

We lost touch for many years but were reunited when Dick was working on getting a 50 year squadron reunion arranged. It was Dick's perseverance that made the reunion a huge success.

I would like to come for the funeral but health issues make it difficult so will pay my respects to Dick from here in Mason City, IA.
