“ To the Family: I remember Richard as he was related to my father (John Melvin Beck Sioux City, Ia, son of Jens Beck - Worthington, son of John Jonsson Beck Offerdal, Sweden). Richard came to gatherings at First Lutheran Church in Wgtn when I was just a child. John (my father Sioux City) talked about Richard alot as they were around each other quite a bit as children. I have all of Phyllis (Richard's sister) photos of when they went to Offerdal Sweden to find the ancestral home of Jens Beck. Did you know that the original family name was Jonsson? It was changed to Beck (which is a stream in Sweden that ran down next to that single room log home on that Mountain overlooking Landogssjon Lake. I have an old postcard book with ~50+ postcards that belonged to Jens sister Hulda & they are all addressed with Jonsson, Jonson & Beck names as the family/friends in Sweden at the time were transitioning & trying to get used to the name change. So I'm not sure if the original name was spelled Jonsson or Jonson but that is the story of where the Beck name came from. Thoughts to Richard's family & the history of the family. Elizabeth Ann Beck N. Mkto, MN.

“ My husband and I met your Dad and Mom at Treasure Island years ago. What a lovely couple! Your Dad was so devoted to your mother. After you Mom and brother passed, we continued to see him, but you could tell some of the light has gone out. He was a wonderful man. Intelligent, funny, and just a plain all around wonderful person. We'll miss his smile, warm greeting, and always fun, lively conversation. May God be with you all!

“ Our sympathy to the Nelson Family for the loss of Richard. The Nelson's were are good neighbors at Lake Mille Lacs. I have known Dick as a neighbor but first met him a long time ago in 1952 when, as a cop he pulled me over on Lake Street in Minneapolis and asked me to cut the wires on my blue lights I had on my Motorcycle. I did and he did not give me a ticket. I will never forget that or will I forget my time spent with Dick.
