“ Richard was loved by his sister Martha. She thought of him every hour of the day. I remember her shopping for him and buying him a winter scarf. She always bought things for him whenever and wherever she shopped. She was the best sister to him of anyone I know.

“ My memories of Richard are of a gracious kind man who he and I would smile and say hello in the building that he and Marissa lived at in Edina. I worked there for over 10 years and had many pleasant conversations.
