“ I had known Rick from our days at St. John's and spoke to him last at a football game for homecoming a while back. I distinctly remember how easy it was to talk to him, always friendly and with a quick smile. No doubt he was a great husband and father. Prayers have been and will be continue to be said for the Villalta family. May our Lord welcome him into his heavenly home and grant comfort to his family. Our true hope is in our eternal home to come.

“ Very sad to hear of Rick's death. I first met Rick the first day at St. John's as we were on the same floor. I can still recall hanging out in the lounge and eating together at the Reef. May God give you comfort and peace as you remember Rick and the joy he brought.

“ Villalta Family,

We are so saddened to hear of the loss of Rick. It takes a courageous person to battle like he did. He also showed such compassion while supporting us in our time of need. Even though Rick was struggling with his health issues, he and Cecilia would provide meals and visit us during Jack's treatments. The visits were a ray of sunshine in our day. Rick could talk about anything, from sports to the accomplishments of Matt and Will. He was a proud Dad and Husband, and a wonderful man.

Cecilia, Matt, Will, Pete and the rest of the Villalta family you are in our prayers.
