“ I am the receiver at Eastside Food Coop in NE MPLS. Rick was my favorite delivery driver working for GK. I was always delighted to share my stories with him, making him laugh, he made me laugh a lot also. We always talked about our weekends and what we did with family and friends. He was funny, charming, and I loved his smile. I considered Rick a friend of mine and he will be missed by me and other staff members at Eastside Food Coop. He always made the start of my work day a little brighter. I always was looking forward to his delivery mornings. I am very sad to hear about losing him but knowing Rick as much as I did, I am sure he would be upset with me if he knew I was sad about him not being here anymore. He wouldn't want that, but its hard for me not to be sad! He will be missed by me a lot. I am sorry for his family at this time, I know that he loved them all very much.

“ I wanted to share a quote that Rick wrote in our High School Yearbook in 1971 " Live for today, tomorrow may never come, but may tomorrow and every day be a happy one"
He was such a great guy, and a really good friend. We will miss that smile and his unmistakable laugh. He will be deeply missed by everyone who knew him, but forever in our hearts.

“Sad shocking news.....Rick moved to our Hills-Beaver Creek school district as a freshman and was a classmate of mine. What a great guy! Personality plus, athlete, homecoming king, friend to all. He lived with his grandparents about 2 miles from Clair and rode the bus together. After he moved to the cities, the contacts were few altho he did stop by our home for a quick visit many years ago and we met Deb. We are planning a class reunion for August and so hoped he would come on down once again. Maybe not in the physical sense, but he will be in our minds and hearts. Looking at his photo - what a nice guy who left us all too soon. Our heartfelt sympathies to the family. May sweet memories bring you comfort in the days and years ahead.
