“ My deepest sympathy to all of you. I never had the opportunity to meet Bob, but I heard a lot of good things about him. I know he had a special place in all of your lives and he was blessed to be loved so much by all of you. I am glad you were able to have time with him before he made his journey to heaven. Stay close to each other and with the love of family and friends I hope you find comfort. Stacey and Brent Kochmann
