“ Hi grandpa,

As you know a beautiful strong woman has been brought into heaven with you and my other grandpa. Please take good care of her as well as each other. I pray for you each day. love you.

- You are remembered each passing day in our hearts and souls for you we pray.

Looking back to the days I woke up to you And to the days you spent with me too.

I would run to you sit on your knee

Rocking in the chair was just you and me.

With you I always went along for the ride,

I sat by you, right by your side.

You would hold my hand and give me a good night kiss

These days remembered I will always miss.

Sometimes as I remember you I beg and cry,

Wishing that you would have never died.

But as the days go on,

For you I will pray

And remember you with each passing day.

“ hi grandpa,
First off Happy Easter!!! I went to visit you this morning with Angie and left you that beautiful orchid- did you like it? We had Easter at uncle Bobs and It was difficult through the day without you. I always hear people get emotional on holidays when they have lost a loved one and they are not there, and I have always thought I won't be like that and it won't be harder than any other day but it was and to top it off my grandma Lennartson is not doing so good and I have been with her everyday for a little over a week just praying that God will take her in peace like you! I miss you. And may you open the doors to heaven for my grandma and help her not be scared.

I love you
