In Loving Memory of Robert Kenton Davies

November 29, 1964 - September 14, 2025

With profound sadness and deep love, we share the passing of Robert Kenton Davies - a devoted partner, dad, grandpa, son, brother, and friend - at the age of 60.

Born in Minneapolis, Robert lived a life defined by quiet strength, unwavering loyalty, and a heart that gave endlessly to those he loved. For 26 years, he shared a beautiful life with his partner, Ann, building a home filled with laughter, warmth, and love. He was a proud and loving dad to Kristen (Alex) and Stephanie (Janelle), and the most extraordinary Papa to his grandchildren - Noah, Annie, and Mason - who adored him beyond measure.

To his grandchildren, Papa was magic. He was a hero, a storyteller, a teacher, and a constant source of joy. Whether it was planning the next adventure, sharing silly jokes, searching for agates, cheering from the sidelines, or offering quiet wisdom during life's tougher moments, he made each grandchild feel deeply loved and valued. He was the one who could fix anything, build anything, and make everything feel okay. He was the voice of reason, the keeper of stories, and the warmest hug at the end of a long day. His love was steady, his presence grounding - he was the anchor of our family.

Robert had a deep love for the outdoors. Nature was his sanctuary - whether casting a line, walking through the woods, tending to his garden, or soaking in the peace of nature, Robert found joy and serenity under the open sky. He passed that love on to his family, creating memories that will live on in every trail walked and every breeze felt.

He leaves behind a legacy of love, craftsmanship, and quiet wisdom. His hands built more than just things - they built a life, a family, and a foundation of love that will carry us forward. His memory will live on in every project completed, every story retold, and every moment we spend together.

Robert is survived by his beloved partner, Ann; his daughters, Kristen (Alex) and Stephanie (Janelle); his grandchildren, Noah, Annie, and Mason; his mother, Kay; his brother, Rick (Candy), and extended family.

A celebration of Robert's life will be held on 9/23/2025 at 11:00 AM

“ I was so sad to hear of Rob's passing. He was a second older brother to me and a part of our family growing up. My memories of getting in to see his band play with my friends, lake vermilion trips, and Christmas Eve at my parents' house in Forest Lake. Rob made every moment fun! I still wear a birthstone ring he gave to me when I turned 16. Thoughts and prayers to Ann and his entire family.
