“ It is a difficult task to eulogize Bob, a man I have known and loved since our parents moved to Anoka and they met Bob and JoAnn at CCD classes. The Englund's were always family, and Bob and JoAnn's kids are our siblings. Bob had to the last minute a curious and active mind, and he shared his many adventures and stories with relish. I always think of Bob and JoAnn as laughing hosts and guests at countless parties, Bob fixing a VO and water and JoAnn serving delicious treats--and always always laughter. We shared sorrow, too, at our families' tragedies, setbacks, and losses. Bob's death is a terrible loss for JoAnn, the extended Englund family, and all of us who considered him an indispensable part of our lives.
