“ Jean and family, sending all our love to you guys. Uncle Bob will be deeply missed by all! Thanks so much for letting be able to watch his service. Not the way any of us would want it, but know that I send a hug for each and everyone of you! Lots of love from his favorite niece and his whiskey water partner minus the whiskey! Love you all so very much!

“ Loved the time that we got to spend with Uncle Bob and family...many memories of piling in the back of the truck and going to the State Fair. We always felt so welcome when we visited Uncle Bob and Jean.

Bob was one unique man. Very congenial and had a passion for Western history. I remember the first time that he came to Oklahoma to visit and was asking me how far where we from the Cookson Hills. I told him about 35 miles I asked him why he wanted to know. He simply stated because he read a lot about the Outlaws that hung out in the Oklahoma Cookson Hills a name Pretty Boy Floyd and a couple of others that I don't recall their names right off. I took him I want to drive to the Cookson Hills he was fascinated by how rough and Persian to terrain fill laws at that time back in the 70s. I also took him down to Belle Starr's grave site. I remember how intrigued he was when I took him to Ft Smith, Arkansas and we toured the old court house where the "Hanging Judge" Isaac Parker held court administering frontier justice in Indian Territory. Bob was a fun gut to be around and will be sorely missed. All my love to Jean, Robby, and Stephanie. My prayers are with you during this time of grief. God bless
