“ My deepest sympathy for Bob’s family and loved ones. Bob was an important person in my life, as my first yoga teacher. Bob taught me about yoga, and much about life as well, sharing his life’s wisdom with his young students. Our children were similar in age; my son Keller played with Max, Selena and Chenelle often in the 1990s. Bob held a role as mentor and guru to me, I cherish the wisdom he passed on. Bob will be deeply missed. Now I share Bob’s wisdom and lessons of humanity with my own yoga students.

“ I’m so sorry to hear that Bob is no longer with us. I remember, like it was yesterday, when he was getting ready to open Present Moment. I was working next door and was so curious about what it was going to be... introduced myself to Bob and had so many enlightening conversations with him about life and health. He turned me on to many great books and taught me so much about the medicinal qualities of herbs. He taught me things that have remained with me all these years.... we used this joke that I was his first customer, and he let me run a tab in the early years there. Loved the wild look he would get in his eyes like he knew something magical... and he did! I will miss seeing him at my Cafe for breakfast where he used to come quite regularly with his children as they were growing up. A great loss to many people. My sincere condolences to the family, he will not be forgotten.
