

Robert Hagen

February 23, 2017

Hagen, Robert W. Passed away peacefully at the Augustana Care Center on Thursday, February 23rd, 2017. Robert was 91 years old. "He served the Lord gladly all the days of his life." Robert was a graduate of South High School in 1940 and then graduated from the Minnesota School of Business. He served in the US Navy during WW2 both in the US and in the South Pacific. After the war, Robert graduated from Augsburg College with BA and then went to work for the City of Minneapolis and for Hennepin County for almost thirty years. When he retired he was Clerk of Court for Hennepin County. Robert was preceded in death by his father Harry and his mother Mae of Minneapolis. He was a long time member of Vine Congregational Church where his father Harry was treasurer. Robert has been an active church member and worker all his life. After his retirement he volunteered to go to the Philippines for the Evangelical Free Church of America as a missionary helper. He worked in the headquarters office in Cebu for 13 years. When he returned to this country he joined Salem Evangelical Free Church at 31st St & 14th Ave. in Minneapolis. He has been active at that church and still had a membership there at the time of his passing. Robert also volunteered weekly at "International Christian Literature Distributors" on 35th & Chicago, helping to pack books and tapes for pastors and missionaries overseas. Robert had a constant wish in his last years that everyone could know his friend Jesus Christ as their friend too. There will be a memorial service for Robert at Augustana Care Center, in the chapel on Tuesday, March 7th at 12:00 pm. Visitation will be one half hour prior to the service. A private burial will take place at Oak Hill Cemetery later that afternoon. Memorials to the Evangelical Free Church of America, International Christian Literature Distributors, Children's Shelter of Sebu, Augustana Care Center. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel
