

Robert Emil Jackson

February 5, 1943 - May 3, 2025

Robert E. Jackson, 82, of Coon Rapids, MN, passed away on May 3, 2025. Born on February 5, 1943, Robert was known for his humor, love, and unwavering support for his family. He leaves behind a legacy of laughter, wisdom, and cherished memories.

Robert dedicated his life to his family, creating an environment filled with love and learning. He is survived by his beloved wife of 54 years, Jayne, and their children: Kimberly, David, and Denise. His joy was further multiplied by his grandchildren: Damien, Andrew, Tiffany, Ashley, Dillon, TiAra, Tyler, Joshua, and Sophia, and great-grandchildren: Carter, Kayden, Nyah, Abigail, Joshua Jr., Clementine, Skyler, Millie, and Loretta.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David and Clara Jackson, his sisters, Helen and Dorothy, and his brother, Lloyd.

Robert's early passion for music led him to play in a polka band, a joyous period where he also met his future wife, Jayne. Their shared love for music and dance, particularly the hop polka, remained a cornerstone of their lives together. Robert was an avid reader with a keen interest in history, which fueled his travels with Jayne and their family to places ranging from Milwaukee to Australia to Hawaii. These trips, often facilitated by Jayne's employment at Northwest Airlines, were cherished family memories. His love for camping was passed down to his children and grandchildren, continuing a cherished family tradition.
