

Robert Alan Kendig

February 15, 2018

Kendig, Robert Alan age 71 of Golden Valley, died January 15th after long illness. He is survived by Aurea, his wife of 38 years; his daughters, Anna and Elsa; his twin sister, Anne; his other siblings, Ben, Jeanne, Geoff, Eric, Patricia and Alan; his siblings-in-law, Elsa and Rich; and all of their respective spouses and families. Bob was born to his parents, Lillian (Lily) and Benton II (Ben), in 1946. Raised in Rochester, NY, his blended Lebanese and British-American heritage gave him a lifelong interest in other cultures, leading him to serve in the Peace Corps in the Philippines as a young man. Bob loved meeting new people, and his gregarious nature and understanding of engineering aided him during his years working as a technical recruiter. A graduate of Hobart College ('68), Bob enjoyed mathematics, science, nature, and spirituality, and in his free time he always had a book in hand. Bob will be remembered for his welcoming spirit, his curious mind, and his readiness to help those around him. His family offers their sincere gratitude to the staff at Maranatha Presbyterian Homes for their compassionate and exemplary care for Bob in the last two years of his life. A service will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, February 24, 2018 in the chapel of Westminster Presbyterian Church at 12th and Nicollet. Visitation 1 hour prior. Interment at Gethsemane Cemetery. Memorials preferred to the Presbyterian Homes Foundation or The Sierra Club. Washburn-McReavy.com Glen Haven Chapel 763-533-8643
