“ Bob was one of the three cousins I shared some great days with harvesting hay on the farm, picking berries in the garden and helping where I could. It was usually a week in the summer when Aunt Kate and Uncle Frank could put up with a city kid. My parents were Matt and Geneva Maas. Matt was Kate's youngest brother. I was the oldest in our family. I am sorry that we didn't know where Bob was so I could communicate with him. I was closer in age to his brother Jim but I knew all four as a result of the summers before Kate passed away from cancer. Cathy and I extend our sympathy and prayers to your families. Bob was a wonderful person as was Doris. John Maas, 109 Deerwood Ct. Hudson WI 54016
