“ It has been a month now and the pain of losing you has not subsided. There is a huge piece of this family that is missing and irreplaceable. I never thought I would lose my big brother, my mentor, my guardian, my friend. I am so blessed to have had you in my life and share in so many memories. I never wanted to admit it, but I always looked up to you. I thought you were the coolest person and always wanted to be around you. You were always there for me, as kids and as "grown ups". Any time I had a problem I knew I could turn to you. Even when I wanted to just hang out and have fun, you were always there. Thank you for being such a great big brother to me and an amazing uncle to my boys. Axel talks about you all the time and always says "I love Uncle Bob". I am so happy Wade got to meet you, you could tell he loved you so much already. I am doing my best to only think about our good memories but now it is tough to get past the thought of you not being here anymore. You truly are one of a kind and I am lucky to have you as my brother. I love you Bob. Rest in peace, until we are together again...

“ BobbyLiving in California it was hard to see you often. My Heather and Matt have very fond memories of all their trips to Minn to visit their cousins Bobby, Wendy and Dusty. Bobby even caught the heart of 4 year old Hannah who would flirt like crazy and he would respond with tickles and being playful. Our hearts are sad and you will be missed. we just didn't have enough time with you.my sympathies to all of the family and especially my little sister Kathy. Love you all

“ Not sure how to start this... Bob... Bobby... God Son. You have an amazing soul, so I would imagine we will be feeling you always. So many memories, but still not enough... You found out you had a blind cousin, and everytime you saw him, you treated him like he wasn't. I remember you and Wendy fighting over who was going to take him for a walk, and you won most times. The time you took to spend with your cousins (they talk about it still) is "So Cool". We (Paul, Jane, Nicholas, Samantha, Daniel and Sophia) are going to miss your bright eyes and ready smile, not to mention your devious smirks when something was up, always! I know we will see you again, but not now... LOVE YOU AND WILL BE MISSING YOU!
