

Robert Wynfield Maynard

May 8, 2017

Maynard, Robert Wynfield Age 94, of Minneapolis, died peacefully on May 8, 2017. He was preceded in death by his father Wynfield J. Maynard, his mother Nathalia B. Maynard, his sister, Marjorie M. Allabough, and his brothers William B. Maynard and Arthur F. Maynard. He is survived by his nephew, Wynfield M. Maynard, and his nieces, Andrea M. Cassel, Barbara A. Campbell, Katherine A. Knight, Joanne A. Erwin and Alison M. Baetzel. He has eight grand nieces and nephews. After graduating from The Lawrenceville School in 1941, he completed two years at Princeton University before reporting for basic training in the Army Field Artillery and later earned a commission at Fort Sill's Officer Candidate School. He was assigned to the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) for service in China where, for a brief time, he became the aide to General William Donovan. On returning to Princeton after World War II, he earned a BA degree magna cum laude in international affairs and then his JD at Harvard Law School. He practiced law with Evans, Hand Evans and Allabough, a law firm in Paterson, NJ until he was recalled from the Army Reserve in 1950 for service abroad in the U.S. Army Counter-Intelligence Corp. After release from the Army in 1953, he joined the legal staff of United Shoe Machinery Corporation in Boston as Foreign Counsel and progressed to Vice-President and General Counsel in 1975. After USM underwent a hostile takeover in 1976, he joined Honeywell Inc. in Minneapolis as Vice-President, General Counsel and Secretary. He retired from Honeywell in 1985 as Senior Vice-President of Legal Affairs. He was an active member of the Colonial Church of Edina and thoroughly enjoyed his memberships in the Minneapolis Club, the Minikahda Club, the Fox and Hounds Breakfast Club and the Skylight Club, all in Minneapolis. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, June 15 at 11am at Colonial Church of Edina, 6200 Colonial Way in Edina. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Colonial Church of Edina. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996