

Mr. Robert Nelson Morshare

March 23, 1921 - July 11, 2019

Morshare, Robert (Bob) Nelson age 98, of Chanhassen, passed away peacefully July 11, 2019. He is survived by daughter, Janice Forsberg and son-in-law Gary; daughter-in-law, Linda Morshare; grandsons, Jeff Forsberg (Shelly) and Greg Forsberg (Marisa); great-granddaughter, Elle Forsberg. His wife Rosemary and son, Thomas Morshare, preceded him in death, as did his parents, Arthur and Marion Morshare. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He especially enjoyed watching his grandsons play sports and attended every basketball and baseball game possible. In his later years he became an avid Twins fan. Bob was proud of his service in WWII where he served as a Lieutenant in the US Navy Air Corps. He piloted a PBM Mariner floatplane and was circling the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay when the Japanese formally surrendered. Bob worked at the Farmers & Mechanics Bank for 37 years and retired from First Federal Savings & Loan. While his profession was banking, his avocation was music. He was a member of the Apollo Club Male Chorus for 25 years. He also sang in barbershop quartets and worked as a choir director at several churches in the Minneapolis area. He and Rosemary belonged to square and round dance clubs for 25+ years. In 1971 Bob served as General Festival Chairman for the Minneapolis Aquatennial topping off over 20 years as a volunteer for the organization. He also served as Treasurer of the American Banking Institute and was a Lieutenant Governor for the Minneapolis Optimist Club.
