

Robert Dale Pietersen

December 6, 2016

Champlin, Mn - Robert Dale Pietersen of Champlin, Mn passed away 12/6/2016, at home, surrounded by family. Robert was born 1/6/47 in Mason City, Iowa, son of Francis and Thelma Pietersen. After graduating from Mason City High School he married Barbara Lee Blum, also of Mason City, and moved to Newport, Mn. He was active in the community, teaching Sunday school and was a Boy Scout troop leader. He was always the first one to offer help to anyone who needed it.

He worked in the automotive industry (White Bear Dodge, Brookedale Chrysler, Dependable Ford and Thomas Pontiac) for many years, later relocating to Champlin, Mn. He served as chairperson of Anoka Halloween for two years. After leaving the auto industry he worked for Movin' On, a specialized transportation company, helping people with special needs get to medical appointments, work programs and care facilities.

Robert enjoyed traveling with his family to the US and Canadian Rocky Mountains. He loved cooking and making care packages for his grandkids in college. He loved children, and was immensely proud of his grandchildren.

He is survived by wife Barbara Pietersen, son Michael Pietersen and wife Brooke, son Barry Pietersen, grandchildren Corissa Howard, Taylor Pietersen, Blake Anderson, Trevor Anderson, Brandon Pietersen and brother William Pietersen.

He was preceded in death by father Francis Pietersen, mother Thelma Pietersen, sister Marlene Arends, and infant sister Jeanette.
