“ Bobs passing is such a disappointment to me!! Before I graduated I gave him a plack to hang on his wall!!
He was the only TRUE FRIEND I HAD IN HIGHSCHOOL!!
He knew exactly what was going on with all the snotty young girls, and if it had not been for him, I would not have any sense of self as he always knew the truth and knew that I was not the instigator!! I will love that guy until the day I die!!!

“ Bob's family
I arrived in the Emerald City of Edina in 1989 the fall of my senior year of high school. Bob extended his thoughtfulness and caring to me based on only one meeting, and over 6 months, he personally guided a completely screwed up 17/18 year old to get his act together and life straightened out by doing one thing; believing in me. I will NEVER forget what he did for me during the darkest period of my life, and I hold him personally responsible for saving me from a complete dead end. I'm very late to this I know, but my thoughts and prayers are with you and I will remember him tonight.
Thanks Mr. She's

“ Joan and Family: I was so saddened to hear of Bob's passing. He was always a positive person and I really enjoyed talking to him. I am so glad I got to see him in June. My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this time. You all are very special to me. All my love, Nancy Dallman (Mustang, OK - grew up on Southmore Drive)

“ I don't know how or why Bob & Joan's Hippo collection started, but I have been dreaming a lot about hippos since Bob's passing. Hippos are sacred animals in Egyptian and African traditions, and their wisdom includes power, stability, strength, and the ability to look beneath the surface of appearances when needed, and the agility to navigate the waters of life. This sounds like Bob to me, I will always remember him as a man who lived and loved with consistency. With his passing, this is what I appreciate most of all.

“ I've been thinking deeply all week about Bob, family patriarch and my great uncle. Thank God for freeing him from a painful battle with cancer, and for giving me the chance to see him just two weeks ago. I only hope I can find a way to be as loving, dependable, and strong as he always seemed to be.
