“ From being able to ride in the Model A's and pass out candy for parades, to always offering to buy anyone and everyone a dinner with them, my uncle will always be remembered by me for a few things.

#1) Sweater Vests.

When I was born til I was in my 40's I never knew anyone to have as extensive a collection of stylish sweater vests.

#2) Photos .If there was a party and Uncle Bob was there...you'd most likely have to move a camera to see him smiling. He really enjoyed being around people who were laughing and having a great time.

#3) parades/dinners (as previously stated)

#4) Their love of their cats and traveling. Uncle Bob and Uncle Bea visited 49/50 states (Never did get to Alaska, but they visited Hawaii 11 times...so that kind of makes up for it) .

#5) The longtime friendships they made with people they'd both worked with, became neighbors too, and had business dealings with. When you went into business with my Uncle you were getting a sound business mind as well as a loyal and devoted friend.

“ Rest in Paradise Bob Stafford. Bob and Beverly were a wonderful part of my life from as far back as I can remember. Their kind and selfless deeds seem as though it was just yesterday. I'm sharing a picture of Bob and Bev from 1957. They were together, smiling and happy. I envision them once again, together, smiling and happy. My sincerest sympathy to the Stafford family.
