“ From the Kennedy's, we want to share our condolences. We have fond memories of Bob, living next to you for so many years. Your family is a blessing. I smile when I think of Bob, he was a person who always made you smile, was kind and considerate, and truly engaged the people around him. "Bobber" as my boys referred to him (kind of a mix of Bob and Weber when Jr. was 3) really tried to make a difference in people's lives. We saw it in his work with DECA but it extended to the neighbors and the kids who lived nearby. When we wanted to expand our ice rink, Bob graciously agreed allowing us to put half the rink on your lot. He saw the joy it brought to the kids in the neighborhood and it really warmed my heart to see Bob on that rink with his grand kids. He invested in people, we really admire that. Praying for all of you.
