“ So many treasured memories with Roger & Family.
Holidays, Birthdays, Summer vacation! Horseback riding, gardening, and getting filthy dirty- such great times!
I learned what a patient, tolerant, and forgiving, man that Roger has been, when I was approximately 8 years old-Cheech was helping me to learn to iron clothes.
Oops!!
I must have scorched 2 or 3 of Roger's pristinely white work shirts!
He just frowned some, and then told me it would be ok.
They never mentioned it again.
I will always remember.
I will cherish these memories always.
Our Family, and Family Friends, are so dear to us.
Love always,

“ Although Roger is gone from this earth, he'll live in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved him.

He was a kind and generous man, opening his heart and his home to us on family occasions.

In particular, we will miss spending Christmas Eve with him. His rotating Christmas tree absolutely fascinated Linda.

Condolences.
