“ Roger, an intellectual man of grit, and good with animals.

Roger was a friend and among many things, he would care for my cats when I went on vacation.

Returning from one trip, Roger informed me that I had went to high school with Edie Falco, a prominent actor. I was like, huh, who, what?

While hanging with the cats, Roger read my senior yearbook from cover to cover and learned that she was in the class behind me. It was news to me and another enjoyable time spent with Roger, as he explained who she was.

RIP
