“ Oh Roger - there are not enough words to describe the impact you had on everyone in your life. You were our office parent, chef, baker, comedian, and spiritual advisor.

Your cooking was AMAZING. You cared deeply about everyone's safety, but put too many delicious calories into our health.

Only you could submit a report about spilling wine on your work laptop, with the smile of a Cheshire cat.

You will be greatly missed. Until we meet again in another life.

“ Roger was someone who I always enjoyed catching up with in the hallway or kitchen at work. He was rich with stories and experiences that always had bearing - on work or on life. And I garnered several recipes from Roger over the years which keep on giving each time we use them! Roger worked hard for a long long time - may you finally enjoy a good long rest my friend. You are missed by all.

“ One of the most interesting people I've ever had the pleasure of meeting. A conversation with Roger was filled with humor, his love of cooking and tidbits of his life and global experiences. I always learned something when we talked. I feel fortunate to have met him on his first day with N3B in Los Alamos. Condolences to Roger's family. He truly was a gem!

“ I worked with Roger at N3B-Los Alamos for a few years. He was such a knowledgeable, giving, and down to earth individual. He would share his Italian recipes with us. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Roger was loved and appreciated by all his co-workers in the San Diego office. He was always generous with his time and was very supportive of each and every individual. Roger was well known for his cooking, and we all looked forward to potlucks or days when Roger brought in treats. His lemon bars would disappear fast if you were late getting to the kitchen. Our condolences to all of Roger's family and friends. We will also miss him dearly.
