

Rohit Kumar Mehta

October 8, 1945 - November 23, 2025

Rohit was born in Multan and lived a life marked by movement and devotion. After Partition, his family relocated to India, beginning a journey that would take him from India to Europe to Rhode Island and eventually to Minnesota, where he made his home. He was deeply committed to his faith, drawing wisdom from both Hindu and Christian traditions. He was a man of conviction who valued honest conversation and authentic connection. He loved spending time with family, walking by the water, singing, and engaging in spirited discussions about life, God, and what matters most. An engineer by training, Rohit approached life with curiosity and determination. He was a planner who took care of the details, a caretaker who showed up for the people he loved, and someone who lived according to his own principles. Rohit is survived by his wife Seema; his children Neeraj (Erin) and Priya (Mike); his grandchildren Ezra, Koen, Mira, Elijah, Isaac, and Noah; and his brothers Ashit and Sunit. He will be remembered for his devotion to God, his love for his family, and his unwavering commitment to living life on his own terms.

I remember Rohit uncle as the most cheerful uncle in the room. Rohit uncle was a greater dancer, both Seema aunty and Rohit uncle would light up the dance floor with their moves. He was always so welcoming to Ram and me and enjoyed life to the fullest. Rohit uncle you will surely be missed.
