

Roland Adrian LeFebvre

January 25, 1926 - November 24, 2021

Roland (Rollie) LeFebvre, age 95, passed away November 24, 2021. Beloved father, grandfather, and proud great-grandfather. He was preceded in death by his wife June, his mother and father, 1 brother and 3 sisters.

Rollie was a bright light in the world who truly loved his life and all those that crossed his path. He approached life with a sense of humor and abundant optimism that was infectious. He was always devoted to family and was married to the love of his life, June, for 65 years before her passing. He spent 2 years in the Army Air Corp. He was a 33 year employee of the Minneapolis Star Tribune, where he always enjoyed the many different positions he advanced to and developed many lasting friendships. Rollie also volunteered his time with the Minneapolis Aquatennial for several years while employed at the Star Tribune. He was an avid racquetball player for many years and continued playing into his 80's.

Rollie is survived by his loving daughter, Donna (Ron) Marien; granddaughter, Michelle (Christopher) Huth; great-grandson, Wyatt Huth, and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial Gathering (Masks required) will be held from 1-3PM with a short program beginning at 2PM, on Sunday, December 19th

“ I played racquetball with Rollie for many years at the Burnsville club and then at the Lifetime club in Bloomington. We all enjoyed playing with Rollie (Mike, Billy, Roxanne, and others) and he was always willing to provide financial advice.

Rest in peace and I hope there are plenty of racquetball courts in the sky. But please don't make a reservation for me just yet.
