“ I have only known him for a short time, almost 7 years. I would have to say the memory I have that sticks out the most would be our "family Mexican dinner". Dad said he wanted to take us all out for dinner and there was 10 of us. Since he was out of his comfort zone of good old fashion Dennys he didn't know what to order. He asked me what I was having and I said chicken fajitas he said sounds good I will do the same. When he ordered he said he would have the chicken Fa Gee Ta's. We all had a good laugh at how he pronounced it. Remember 10 people all having cocktails and dinner at La Casitas When the bill came he looked at it and said "uh oh". Dad brought $75 for 10 people needless to say we all got our wallets out. We had good laughs and food that night. I sure am going to miss him.

Love Lisa
