

Ronald "Gene" Stangoehr

May 6, 2009

Stangoehr, Ronald G. "Gene" Age 78 of Buffalo, MN. Beloved husband, father and grandfather, passed away suddenly on May 3, 2009. Preceded in death by parents, Eleanor Tobin and Victor Stangoehr, wife, Elaine; son, David; and baby daughter, Sandra. Survived by sons, Steve (Jeanne) Stangoehr, Mark (Joan) Stangoehr, and daughter, Julie (Thomas) Fasching; was a loving grandfather of 11 grandchildren. Gene was a wonderful man known for his "quick wit" and generosity to family and friends. He graduated from Wayzata High School Class of 1949. He served in the US Navy as an Engineman Third Class from 1951- 1954. He was "salesman of the year" countless times during his long career at RCA and GE. He loved fishing, hunting, playing bridge and penny-anti poker with family. Gene will be greatly missed and can never be forgotten. He will be laid to rest along with his loving wife, Elaine - "they are together again forever". Graveside service will be held Friday, May 8 at 11:30 AM at the Fort Snelling National Cemetery, Assembly Area #5. A luncheon will immediately follow at Mendota VFW Post 6690, 1323 Sibley Memorial Hwy. Washburn-McReavy Davies Chapel 612-377-2203
