

Ronald Dean Hanson

June 15, 1937 - January 7, 2025

Ronald Dean Hanson passed away on January 7, 2025, at the age of 87. Ronald was born in Duluth to Carl and Mildred (Bergstedt) Hanson on June 15, 1937, and moved with his family to Milwaukee. After completing high school, he served his country by joining the Army. Ronald was stationed in Minneapolis where he met his wife Emily (Woodman) on a blind date. Ronald and Emily would marry on March 17th, 1962, and raise their four children in St. Louis Park.

Ronald accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and provided the Christian environment for his family to learn about Jesus. As a family man, he took seriously the duty as a father to provide for his family and worked hard in all the jobs he held. Ronald especially excelled in his career in computer sales when computers were first becoming commonplace in businesses and homes. He made friends of those he met in his careers and in life. He was capable and resourceful and excelled at challenges. Ronald and Emily enjoyed nature. Early family life included camping in Wisconsin and trips to visit extended family in South Dakota and elsewhere.

Preceded in death by his parents, wife Emily, son Bradley, brothers Paul and Eric. Survived by sons Bryan and Brent, daughter Beth (Rarick), grandchildren Sean and Joshua, brothers David, James and Mark, sisters Carol (Wittig) and Debra. Visitation will be held at 1pm on Friday, January 17 with a funeral service to follow at 2pm.
