

Ronald Hoag

February 26, 2018

Ronald Ralph Hoag, a cherished and loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, age 82, of Ham Lake passed away on February 26 in Coon Rapids, Minnesota. Ron was born in Duluth, Minnesota to Ralph and Minnie Hoag on October 25, 1935. In 1964, he married Glory (Magnuson) Hoag and they enjoyed 53 years of marriage together—full of many fond memories with their beloved family and friends. Ron’s family was his pride and joy. He was a quiet man, who taught his family the definition of integrity, love, the importance of family and modeled the meaning of hard work. During his lifetime, Ron studied at Dunwoody Institute as a GM mechanic for 11 years, served in the National Guard and worked for over 40 years as a truck driver for Magnuson Sod. During his free time, Ron had a great passion for motorcycles and old cars. He also cared for the neighborhood wildlife by making sure that his feeders in the backyard were always abundant with feed. Ron and his family took many family vacations across the United States. Ron always made one-on-one time with his children a priority, and enjoyed many fun adventures with his family during his vacations across the United States.

Ron is preceded in death by his sister, Margie; brother, Donald; and nephews, Allan Schuller and Larry Schuller. Ron is survived by his wife, Glory Hoag; sister, Donna (Victor) Schuller; son, Donald (Tammy) Hoag; daughter, Linda (Mark) Dorn; and daughter, Connie Hoag; three grandchildren: Dan (Sara) Hoag, Dewayne (Trista) Hoag, and Jessie (Matt) Perowitz; five great-grandchildren: Jaslyn, Devin, Ivylina, Harley and Hunter; and nieces and nephews.

The family of Ron Hoag thanks everyone for their love and support during this difficult time.

“ Dear Glory, Donny, Linda and Connie - my childhood memories are filled with my parents hanging out with Glory and Ron, as the four of them were such great friends. We would go to your home for an afternoon, or Ron and Glory would come to our place for some of the parties my folks would have. I remember Ron's smile, which he seemed to have for everyone he met. He was kind, outgoing and loved the outdoors- we all know how much he loved to ride his motorcycle! He, and your family will always have a special place in my heart, from the bond of friendship our two families have shared over the years. He will be missed by all, but his spirit lives on.
