

Ronald James Woolcott

June 17, 2017

Ronald James Woolcott, 77, Saint Francis MN, died June 17, 2017 in Coon Rapids, MN

No formal services will be held as per his wishes. His children will spread his ashes privately, and headstone will be placed next to his wife at St. Antony's Catholic Cemetery, Fairmount ND.

Ronald was born December 20, 1939 in Minneapolis, MN, the son of Frank and Elsie (Donovan) Woolcott. He grew up in Minneapolis and surrounding areas. He served in the National Guard during Korea as a radio operator and trainer. He then graduated from Dunwoody College with a Doctorate of Mechanics.

Ron met his wife Corrine at the Silver Dollar in Minneapolis. They were married on December 29, 1970 and lived on a little houseboat on the Mississippi River until 1973, when they moved to St. Francis, MN and raised two children.

Ron worked in road construction for several small companies and 20 plus years with Bituminous Roadways. In 1990, Ron went to work for Sears, but after several years, he returned to road construction, as an Estimator for the Czars of Tar until he retired in 2010.

Ron enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren, helping them learn about tools, cars, and how things work.

He is survived by his daughter: Kathleen Woolcott, Minneapolis, MN; His son: Ronald Woolcott II and his wife Dawn and their children, Tiffany, Jacinda, Harley and Elizabeth, Cedar MN; His Daughter: Crystal Woolcott and her children, Emerald and Ruby, St. Francis MN; His brother: Frank Woolcott, Las Vegas NV; His sisters: Dee (Dan)Hieder; Beverly (Bill) Allos; Elsie Jo Woolcott, Minneapolis MN; Many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife Corrine Meyer; His parents Frank Woolcott and Elsie Casto; step father Bud Casto; His brother Edmund (John) Woolcott;

Tribute Wall

“ Cherie Wallin lit a candle in memory of Ronald James Woolcott

---

Cherie Wallin - June 23, 2017 at 10:30 AM