

Rosa Mae (nee Wolf) Hromatka

March 28, 2016

Hromatka, Rosa Mae (nee Wolf) 88, of Hopkins. Preceded in death by husband Calvin "Kelly"; daughter Joan; grandson James Johnson. Survived by children Ed (Maria), Sharon (Tom) Johnson, Tom (Mary Jo), Greg (Cindy), Jean (Nigel) Nightingale; 12 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren. Rosa Mae was born and raised on the prairies of North Dakota. After high school she permanently relocated to the Hopkins area where she married Calvin in 1946. Together they raised their family on part of the original Hromatka homestead property. Rosa Mae always served others first which was a hallmark of her Catholic faith. For many years, she transcribed books into braille. Rosa Mae's father Jake spent winters with her and Calvin before he permanently moved in with them where she provided care and support to him until his death. Her nurturing and mentoring carried through to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved baking cookies with them, spent endless hours playing cards and games and mentoring them in faith in their daily lives. Rosa Mae was the last of her generation of both the Wolf and Hromatka clans including their spouses. Interment St. Margaret's Cemetery. “ Rosa will be greatly missed but her warmth, kindness, and gentle spirit will be remembered forever. I only knew Rosa briefly while visiting with her through Joyful Companions but she truly touched my heart; I feel so blessed to have met her.

With love and remembrance. Michelle Dennie xoxoxo
