

Rosario Castano

December 27, 1951 - February 16, 2019

Rosario Castaño, Age 67, of St. Paul, passed away February 16, 2019. She welcomed and touched everyone with a warm heart. Known for her strong sense of style and love of art and music, she was the favorite tía (aunt) and like a mother to many. Rosario was born in St. Paul and graduated from Johnson High School in June 1970. Living in Washington, D.C. for 20 years, she studied photography at the Corcoran School of Art. She obtained her nail technician license in Virginia, worked at ATT for 19 years, and served as a legal secretary for the Office of the Public Defender in Hennepin County.

She is preceded in death by father, Richard F. Castano and siblings, Patricia, Gracie, and Richard, Jr. She is survived by mother, Clara M. Moreno (Trujillo); siblings, Jovita, Philip, Teresa, Joe Lewis, and Roy; and many nieces and nephews.

A living memorial service was held. Donations may be made on behalf of Rosario Castano to Our Lady of Peace Hospice in St. Paul online at: ourladyofpeacemn.org
