Rose Marcella Cronk

August 24, 1923 - December 18, 2022

Born in Hastings, North Dakota. The fourth child of Magnus Henning Bengtson Stoneberg and Anna Elaine (Graalum) Stoneberg. Rose graduated from Interstate Business College in Fargo, ND and made her way to Minneapolis. She worked for General Foods and Northern Pump Company during World War II. She also modeled for Donaldson's and Powers department stores.

Rose married Robert James Cronk in 1946 and they raised four children in the Southwest Minneapolis area. Rose returned to the work force as professional secretary with National Car Rental and Caswell Ross Insurance.

Rose was known for her extraordinary devotion to her family and friends. Along with being a loving wife, sister, mother, grandmother and great grandmother, she was a close and loyal friend. Rose was an avid bridge player and enjoyed gardening, music, travel and following family activities.

Rose is preceded in death by husband Robert in 2012, sisters Ethel McNabney and Mae Lund and brother Hubert Stoneberg. She is survived by her four children: Bob (Allie), Tom (Kathryn), Jill (Steve Schendel), Brian (Marina), 12 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.
