

Rose Ann Wallace

January 23, 2015

Wallace, Rose Ann age 71 of Bloomington, passed away peacefully January 23, 2015 after a courageous year long battle with lung cancer. She left this world and went into the next surrounded by her family, who were her greatest joy and life's work. Rose Ann was an extremely kind, compassionate, fun and loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She was also a devout Catholic and parishioner of St. Edward's Church and an avid MN sports fan - if there was a game on you know she'd be watching or listening to it. Rose Ann was preceded in death by her parents, Jacob and Rose Trappen; sister, Mary Cooper; and brother, Richard Trappen. Survived by her husband of 42 years, Bruce; children, Jennifer (John) Klapak, Scott (Bridgit) Wallace and Amy (Mason) Little; grandchildren, Lily, Juliet and Landon; sister-in-law, Muriel Trappen; nieces, nephews, and many dear friends. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to NC Little Memorial Hospice, Edina, MN or donor's choice. Interment Eden Prairie Cemetery. Mass of Christian Burial Friday, January 30, 11 AM at St. Edward's Catholic Church, 9401 Nesbitt Ave S, Bloomington. Visitation 1 hour prior to Mass at the church and also Thursday, January 29, 4-7 PM at: www.Washburn-McReavy.com Werness Brothers 952-884-8145 2300 W. Old Shakopee Rd.

“ *Dear Bruce and family,
You have our most heartfelt condolences on your loss. Why God chose Rose Ann to fight this struggle, we'll never know. But she taught us all how to live each day to the fullest and never give up. Rose Ann was a sweet, wonderful woman. We remember her good humor and zest for life and her love for each and every one of you, especially those precious grandchildren. We're sorry that we'll miss her celebration of life on Friday. We'll be thinking of you then. You are in our thoughts and prayers now and in the days to come.*
Deepest Sympathy,
Laurie and Jack Trimbo
