“ Happy Birthday sweet mother! My heart is shattered into a million pieces, and the only thing that helps us knowing you are in the arms of our loving Lord on your special day and having fun celebrating with your family. I miss you so badly every day because you were one in a million. I was so so so lucky that God gave me such a beautiful Mom and mere words could not describe how special you were. Big hug for you today and every day.

“ Happy Mother's Day to the most beautiful Mother and friend I was so Blessed to have all these years. You were our sweet angel on Earth- always putting others first, and always going out of your way to be kind to all. In your Church duties, you always made sure everyone felt welcome and included. You always cared and asked how they were doing, even when your own body was breaking down. I treasure every second I was Blessed to spend with you. God is so lucky to have you with him, and we know you are so happy and pain free now. You will be in my heart and remembered every single day until I see you again and can once again hug and hold my sweet Mama.

“ How lucky and blessed I was that God chose you to be my mother. I will be forever grateful for your gentle guidance, your unending patience, your ability to forgive, and your lifetime of unconditional love that flowed so easily from you. You will always be remembered for your sweet, gentle nature, and your willingness to help friends and strangers alike. You always put the needs of others before your own, with one of your final comments being “Others have it worse”. You battled bravely and without complaint for 5 years, finally hanging up your shield only days before God called you home. You will always be fondly remembered and deeply missed by all who knew you. Although we lost our beautiful Angel, she now dances amongst them in Heaven. You’ve earned your angel wings Mama- rest in eternal peace.

“ Such a wonderful and loving mother-in-law from the first day I ever met her 37 plus years ago. I was like family from day one. She will be missed dearly by all. We love you. RIP. Graham
