

Rosina Dionisia Casciano

October 15, 1934 - May 10, 2026

Rosa (Rosina) Casciano, age 91, passed away peacefully on May 10, 2026, at her residence in Plymouth, Minnesota.

Rosina was born on October 15, 1934, in Fontana Liri, Italy, to Nazzarena and Pasquale Casciano. As an infant, she was famously voted Italy's "most beautiful baby," a title that reflected the warmth, grace, and light she carried throughout her life. In the 1960's, after coming to America, she married Roy Sweigert, beginning a new chapter filled with family, faith, and devotion.

Rosina dedicated many years working as a bookkeeper and spent time employed at Federal Cartridge and MinnCo. While she valued her work, her greatest joy came through serving others and spending time at Epiphany Church. She worked in the church lunchroom and faithfully volunteered her time in many ways, forming lasting friendships and touching countless lives through her kindness, generosity, and gentle spirit. In her later years she met and married John Gennaro and was with him until his death in 2016.

Above all else, Rosina cherished her family. She was a devoted mother to John (Amy) Sweigert and Rosemary (Bill) Decker. She was a proud grandmother to Alexandra (Vanessa) Sweigert, Samantha Johnson, and Tessa Saloka (Justin) and a loving great-grandmother to Kaleyn, Finn timer, Teddy, Sutton, Maddex, and Myles.

The family would also like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the compassionate caregivers and staff at Gladys Place (Gianna Homes), for the love, dignity, and exceptional care they provided to Rosina in her final years. Their kindness and support brought comfort not only to Rosina, but to her entire family.

Rosina will be remembered for her strong faith, caring heart, tireless work ethic, and the love she shared so freely with those around her. Her presence brought comfort and joy to family, friends, and all who knew her.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
