

Roxana Parker

May 22, 1949 - January 9, 2023

Parker, Roxana. Loving wife and mother, Roxana Parker, went to be with the Lord. She is survived by her only daughter. Preceded in death by her mother, father and 2 siblings while she is survived by a brother and sister. Service will be Saturday, January 28th at 1:00 pm with visitation one hour before at: Washburn-McReavy Dawn Valley Chapel, 9940 Bush Lake Road, Bloomington. www.Washburn-McReavy.com for more details. Due to allergies, No flowers please; only green plants.

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 28. 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM (CT)

Dawn Valley Chapel
9940 Bush Lake Road
Bloomington, MN 55438

Chapel Service

JAN 28. 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM (CT)

Dawn Valley Chapel
9940 Bush Lake Road
Bloomington, MN 55438

Tribute Wall

“ Washburn-McReavy Funeral Chapels created a Tribute Video in memory of Roxana Parker

---

Washburn-McReavy - January 26, 2023 at 09:36 AM

CS

There is a song that was sung by Helen Ready with the words... when one of us is gone and one of us is left to carry on...then remembering will have to do.

Truer words were never spoken. I was blessed to be holding Roxie's hand as she slipped from this world.

I know that Father God was waiting for one of his most faithful children to arrive.

I met Roxie in the mid 90's when I was interviewing her for a position with our company.

I liked her immediately. She was warm, friendly and very professional. Little did I suspect she would become more than a best friend but also a sister in the Lord.

She was the most giving person I ever met. Not just things...! She gave me her heart and I gave her mine.

Roxie and Tricia lived with us temporarily three separate time as they traveled down the road of life.

My husband thought of her as the little sister he never had.

They had a great relationship. I can still hear her say KENNY!

He was her nurse when she had back surgery. He handled all her meds and made her take them even when she did not want to!

She loved to talk, as we all know! I loved her for it... most of the time she kept us laughing but she had her sad times too. Like when she lost Jimmy the amazing man she married.

As I held her hand and wept, I remembered he told her he would meet her just outside the Eastern Gate and I know without a doubt he did.

I am sorry I could not be there for Trisha as she buries her mother's body and bring her comfort.

But she knows we are here for her, just the way my Roxie would have wanted!

---

Carol Sedor - January 28, 2023 at 12:36 AM

SR

“Roxie was my precious aunt, my mom's baby sister and being closer in age to me she was more like a big sister than an aunt. And she was always fun, filled with joy, and an amazing baker! She loved Jesus with all of her heart! I miss her greatly but I know that I will see her again in Heaven! I have been visualizing the joy and delight happening there now with her and my mom.

Trish, we're not able to be there in person today with you, but we're here for you and praying the Lord gives you great comfort as only He can do. Love you.

---

Shari Risoff - January 28, 2023 at 01:41 PM

GG

“Roxy was also my sweet little sister. I will miss her, and treasure the memories of our wonderful times together. She had so many gifts to share. The list is endless, but to name a few, the gift of hospitality, of giving, of fun and laughter, of sharing Jesus. I could go on. I loved her dearly, and will miss her greatly. Because of our savior, it will be joyful to be reunited with her in heaven one day.

---

Gloria Grant - January 28, 2023 at 01:04 PM

AG

“Roxy was the youngest of my 3 sisters. Being 14 years older and going on my own at age 19, I am sad that I could not share her growing-up years. My memories of my baby sister will always be of her love for Jesus, and the sweet, guileless, loving nature that she had. She was one of the most giving persons, expecting nothing in return, that I have ever met. Her infectious laughter made every get together, fun and memorable. It is obvious that Jesus wanted her to come home, and while I am so sad, my sadness is tempered by the joy in knowing that I will see her again when our family is all reunited thanks to the amazing grace of our Savior.

---

Arnold Grant - January 28, 2023 at 12:34 PM

CS

“ There is a song that was sung by Helen Ready with the words... when one of us is gone and one of us is left to carry on...then remembering will have to do.

Truer words were never spoken. I was blessed to be holding Roxie's hand as she slipped from this world.

I know that Father God was waiting for one of his most faithful children to arrive.

I met Roxie in the mid 90's when I was interviewing her for a position with our company.

I liked her immediately. She was warm, friendly and very professional.

Little did I suspect she would become more than a best friend but also a sister in the Lord.

She was the most giving person I ever met. Not just things...! She gave me her heart and I gave her mine.

Roxie and Tricia lived with us temporarily three separate time as they traveled down the road of life.

My husband thought of her as the little sister he never had.

They had a great relationship. I can still hear her say KENNY!

He was her nurse when she had back surgery. He handled all her meds and made her take them even when she did not want to!

She loved to talk, as we all know! I loved her for it... most of the time she kept us laughing but she had her sad times too. Like when she lost Jimmy the amazing man she married.

As I held her hand and wept, I remembered he told her he would meet her just outside the Eastern Gate and I know without a doubt he did.

I am sorry I could not be there for Trisha as she buries her mother's body and bring her comfort.

But she knows we are here for her, just the way my Roxie would have wanted!

---

Carol Sedor - January 28, 2023 at 12:40 AM

DA

“ From when she was 5 years old, she's called me Uncle Darrel. She's a sister and like another daughter to me all her life. I'll miss her like only those who really knew her and enjoyed her spontaneous and joyful life. Very sad that I'm unable to attend the service, but I'll be watching. Love you Trish!

Darrel Anderson - January 27, 2023 at 11:04 AM

JG

We visited the Parkers every where they lived. Roxie made visits so much fun. She could tell a story that had you in stitches and she knew the best places to shop. There was no end to the food and treats she prepared. We loved her and will miss her. We love you Trish and we are sorry we can't be there in person. Gary and Judy

Judy Grant - January 27, 2023 at 10:05 PM

Judy Grant....Thank you for your kind words. You are here in my heart and love you too. Can't wait to visit and share those stories...but we may lack those treats :-). Please take care....know our hearts are together across the miles.

T - January 27, 2023 at 11:14 PM

Uncle D....and we shared many dinners and laughter and we will hold those dear. Love you....Trish

T - January 27, 2023 at 11:15 PM

“ Emerald Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Roxana Parker.

January 26, 2023 at 08:07 PM

“ Emerald Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Roxana Parker. ”

---

January 24, 2023 at 12:12 PM