

Royce Wesley Sloan

November 2, 1957 - July 5, 2020

Sloan, Royce Wesley age 62, of Minneapolis, MN. Preceded in death by parents, Robert and Virda Sloan and brother, Reece Sloan, and survived by a host of many close friends from all over the world. Royce was born in Liberal, Kansas. He attended Emporia State University in Emporia, Kansas, where he played Trombone in the University Marching Band. He also attended Chadron State College, where he directed the play "The Devil and Daniel Webster" by Stephen Vincent Benet. Royce was a member of Pi Kappa Delta International Honor Society and Alpha Psi Fraternal Organization. Royce was formerly an Episcopalian Brother in the Brotherhood of St. Gregory. He converted to the Roman Catholic Faith in 1986. Royce was an active member of the St. Olaf Catholic Church in Minneapolis and sang in the church choir. He was a member of Thrivent Financial Toastmasters, achieving the Able Silver Toastmasters Award. Royce enjoyed traveling internationally. The highlight of his travels included his trip to the Czech Republic, Switzerland, Austria, and Germany. Royce was a 21-year employee of American Security LLC, from which he received the Distinguished Service Award and 3 Outstanding Service Awards. Royce had the innate ability to put a smile on everyone's faces, and his cheerful personality will be missed greatly. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated in memory of Royce on Friday, July 24th at 10:00 a.m., at St. Olaf Catholic Church, 215 S 8th St, Minneapolis. Internment August 14th in Mt. Calvary Roman Catholic Cemetery in Salina, KS.