

Ruby (Carlson) Sher

January 4, 2016

Sher, Ruby Carlson Ruby Carlson Sher was called to her heavenly home and to be with her beloved husband, George, on January 4, 2016, at the age of 96. Ruby was born in Spruce Hill, Minnesota on November 16, 1919. She had three sisters (Dorothy Winseman, Margaret Carlson and Ruth Carlson) and four brothers (Everett, Elmer, Emanuel and Luverne). Her husband, George, passed away in 1982. She is survived by one sister-in-law, Janet Carlson, and many nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her next door neighbors, Abe and Sunny Shariff, and their children, Jordan, Shane and Ayesha, who adopted her when her husband passed away. They, along with Robyn Lindenberg, her dear friend, caregiver and helpmate, were all like family. Her many other friends made her feel like the luckiest person in the world. The Easter Sunday Bulletin of the Central Free Church on April 13, 1941, said it best in a feature article on Ruby when it said, "When Ruby came to Minneapolis, Spruce Hill lost one of the nicest, sweetest girls they had." After going to Minneapolis School of Business, Ruby worked for years at Dunn & Bradstreet and other companies, as well as for a doctor, for over 20 years prior to becoming a homemaker. She was a devoted wife to her husband, George, and for many years cared for his mother who lived to be 100. Ruby gave of herself to her church and everyone she knew living a life of total thankfulness. Ruby joins her loving husband, George, her parents, Charles and Ellen Carlson, and her brothers and sisters in glory with a life well lived. A service of celebration of Ruby's life will be held at The Evangelical Free
