

Russell Thomas Cook

August 31, 2014

Cook, Russell Thomas 24, of Eden Prairie, MN passed away unexpectedly at home on August 31, 2014. Russ was a graduate of Eden Prairie High School and had attended Phillips Academy in Andover, MA, as well as the University of Wisconsin - Madison and Normandale College. Russ possessed a brilliant mind, delightful personality, and a wonderful wit and sense of humor. A conversation with Russ was always enjoyable and left you with a smile on your face. His interests included photography, writing, drawing, gardening, pottery, rock climbing as well as being a voracious reader. Russ's latest passion had become Skydiving; he had well over 100 jumps and had last worked at Westside Skydiving in Winsted, MN. Russ's death leaves an unfillable void in the lives of his family and many friends, which he freely expressed his love for. He is survived by his parents, Lisa and Brian; brother, Douglas; grandmothers, Phyllis Markisen and Beverley Cook; loving aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends. Russ is preceded in death by his two grandfathers, Russell Markisen and Thomas Cook. Celebration of Russ's life will be held at Christ Presbyterian Church, 6901 Normandale Road, Edina, MN on Tuesday, September 9, 2014 at 4:00 pm with a reception to follow at the church. Memorials in Russell's name may be made to Friends of the Hennepin County Library or The Fisher House.

Tribute Wall

DO

“ I miss you Crusty. I love you.

Love Doug

---

Doug - August 31, 2017 at 12:13 PM