“ SOOO many memories to speak of. Russ was one of the neighborhood dads that wasn't the helicopter type but rather get you started and be on your way type. I recall the boxing matched in your back yard and the turtles. He was every bit hoping for those 100 eggs or so to hatch. He was always a busy, hardworking man with such a good spirit. That same spirit was clearly visible in Dan. So sorry to hear of you passing Russ, God speed, many are in heaven for you to see. Prayers for all that knew him, and that will shed a tear in his passing
