“ Dear Bud, Dean and family,
My sympathy to you and the entire family. I will always remember and be grateful how Bud and Ruth "took" me in as a new Christian into their home and lives in Battle Lake and Minneapolis. I remember meeting Ruth at the Battle Lake sidewalk art sale. She was sitting peacefully in the shade selling her pottery and we met and began visiting. Little did I know how the Lord was in that meeting to bring her and Bud and I together to form a friendship and for them to become "spiritual parents" to me. They were a BIG part of my growth as a Christian and I am grateful for that. It would be great to catch up with you Bud and Dean. Gods blessings and peace be with you at this time.

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of such a special person. Oh how our family and friends have enjoyed using her clay cookies presses purchased at Phelps Mill, and then by ordering them through the mail. When Ruth sold out the last of the cookie presses, my sister bought the remaining thirty two. Remember the bare foot press? Several of us have that press and MANY more. Her talents were many.
